

Sustainable Commercial Buildings in Tropical Environments

A Knowledge Exchange Workshop

Don't miss the opportunity to hear the stories behind the development of some of the highest green rated commercial office buildings in the country

DATE

14 September 2005

TIME

8.30 am – 4 pm

VENUE

Southbank Convention Centre
(Raffles Room)
23 Palmer Street
Townsville Qld 4810

REGISTRATION

Registration details contained overleaf
Bookings close Tuesday, 6 September 2005
Seats are limited

COST

This workshop is free of charge but is by invitation only

PROGRAM

Session 1

3 Case Studies in Energy Efficiency, Performance and Sustainability

- William McCormack Place, Cairns
- The Bond Commercial Building, Sydney
- Thuringowa City Council's Commercial Office Component of the Riverway Project

Session 2

Breakout Groups

Investigate a range of issues in detail. Explore findings from case studies further with our panel of experts in these free flowing, highly interactive discussion forums

- Breakout Workshop 1
Lessons Learned
- Breakout Workshop 2
Setting the Scene for Change – Reviewing Specialised Learnings
- Breakout Workshop 3
Where to From Here – Change and Innovation in Tropical Environments

A Centre for Excellence in Tropical Design – Sustainability and Innovation is Proudly Supported by

REGISTRATION FORM

Sustainable Commercial Buildings in Tropical Environments

To register, please complete your registration form and return to:

Registration Form: Jennifer Willcock, Senior Marketing and Communications Consultant, Project Services – Department of Public Works, Level 6B, 80 George Street, Brisbane QLD 4000

Fax: (07) 3224 6185 or

Email your name, position, organisation and phone number with the subject CETD Workshop to jennifer.willcock@projectservices.qld.gov.au

PERSONAL DETAILS

Name: _____ Title: _____

Organisation/Institution: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

